After Lotan's Pile.

WASHINGTON, July 28.-Supervising special agent Tingle of the treasury department, says that the government indicted at Portland, Or. Notwithstanding the indicted men claim the action against them is inspired by political motives, Mr. Tingle, who is himself is untrue. He regrets as much as anybody that he had to perform the dispush the cases to the end.

THE EXACT FIGURES. He says the collector at Portland must have received about fifty dollars a head for each Chinese he smuggled in. There were seventeen hundred Chinese brought in, in all. The revenue derived by these enterprising treasury officials amounted in all to about $85,000.

ANOTHER BIG STEAL. Tingle estimated that there were 8500 pounds of oplum ranggled in, duty on which would have amounted to $102,000. After the government had succeeded in making its cases, several members of the gang tumbled over one another in their desire to turn state's

That day and the next Krupp field guns were dragged up the divide and an attempt was made to shell the lepers stronghold. During the day leper sples were sent up and were so successful in treating with the lepers that Koolau had induced to loin him that by night, after the firing had ceased, all the lepers had surrendered and were brought into "Camp Dole" on the beach at the mouth of the valley, except Koolau, his wife and child.

In the official report sent to Honolulu it was stated that Koolau would likely escape into the mountains back of the

HOPS AND CROPS.

SALEM, July 26.

GOVERNMENT REPORT. Hops are is bloom and a good crop is xpected. The arms are from six to ten feet long and very healthy. Some yards are expected to yield 2500 pounds to the acre; on low lands the hops are not so good, being more backward and of a yellowish appearance.

The clear, warm weather was very peneficial to the ripening of fall sown grain. Fall sown oats and wheat are being cut in Linn, Lane, Benton, Douglas, Josephine and Jackson counties; in Marion, Polk and counties to the north harvesting has not yet beome general, but will be this week. The grain cut so far has been heavy, of good quality and very satisfactory to the farmers. The spring oats and wheat will not yield an average unless rain should fall within the next week. Spring wheat is not over 15 luches high and it will be hard to safely cut.
